Looking for an unique article wizard review and short tutorial?

Unique Article Wizard (UAW) is a browser-based program you can use to publish, spin, and distribute unique copies of your articles to hundreds, even thousands of online article directories and blogs with a few simple clicks of your mouse.

The reason you might want to seriously take a close, hard look at this "unique article wizard review" is because internet marketing really boils down to a simple five step process:

- Have something to sell
- Find keywords used by people looking to buy
- Create content to rank for these keywords
- Publish the content
- Promote the content to rank on Google

Pull off this 5 step system correctly and you will create an unstoppable flood of traffic, generate leads on demand and make money.

Get it wrong and you'll continue to struggle to make any money online because TRAFFIC is the name of the game and one of the best ways to drive traffic to your web site is to get lots of keyword-rich, value-packed content to RANK on the front page of Google.

Unique Article Wizard Results

Over the years we have built four very profitable businesses online.

In each case we followed the simple 5-step process outlined above - which really boils down to effectively promoting your products, services, affiliate links or business opportunity in such a way as to make it very easy for people to find your content.

For example, we promote a program called My Lead System Pro designed to help frustrated network marketers learn how to use the internet and attraction marketing models to generate leads on demand, pocket a few affiliate commissions and sponsor people into their businesses. So this is the product we sell.

Next we find out what keywords they use when looking for a solution to help take their business to the next level. Here are three examples:

- mlm marketing - 110,000 searches per month
- mlm leads - 33,000 searches per month
- what is mlm marketing - 110,000 per month

So we publish content related to those searches and use automatic backlink tools like unique article wizard to get thousands of backlinks to our web pages and blog posts. Because BACKLINKS are what cause your pages to rank high on the search engines.
