Video Journal to a Million Dollars

Striving for more, enjoying the journey and inviting YOU to come along with me...

The secret to success is to know exactly where you are going. Not necessarily the HOW you are going to get there but you absolutely must have a definite destination in mind. And well as a very good REASON WHY. Because if you don't have a strong, motivating, sustaining reason... chances are you'll give up when then going gets rough.

Join me - right here, right now - on this blog as I document my journey to a million dollar per year income.

One million dollars per year passive or quasi-passive residual income.

That's my destination. My vehicle will be affiliate marketing and network marketing.

Buckle up. It's the law...
